

USask EL Domains and Competencies

Direct Patient Care Rotations
 (PHAR 185, PHAR 285, PHAR 481, PHAR 482, PHAR 483, PHAR 484)

KNOWLEDGE

- 1 Demonstrates application of fundamental knowledge and skills covered in curriculum to date
- 2 Uses a combination of knowledge, critical thinking, and problem-solving skills to make and justify decisions

PROVIDING CARE

- 3 Gathers information
- 4 Identifies and prioritizes drug therapy problems (DTPs)
- 5 Identifies goals of therapy (GOT)
- 6 Identifies, compares, and selects most appropriate therapeutic alternatives
- 7 Prepares, dispenses, and supports distribution and administration of medications
- 8 Monitors and follows up on plans

COMMUNICATION & COLLABORATION

- 9 Establishes and maintains rapport and relationships
- 10 Communicates verbally and non-verbally
- 11 Communicates in writing, including completing documentation
- 12 Fulfills professional roles and responsibilities, including implementing plans and referring or transferring responsibility when appropriate
- 13 Recognizes and respects the roles and shared responsibility of others, including patient as decision maker

LEADERSHIP & STEWARDSHIP

- 14 Uses strategies and techniques to optimize pharmacy care and contribute to patient safety
- 15 Contributes to stewardship of healthcare resources
- 16 Participates in health promotion and disease prevention efforts

PROFESSIONALISM & PROFESSIONAL IDENTITY

- 17 Demonstrates responsibility and commitment to learning through the demonstration of, but not limited to:
 - Self-reflection
 - Self-assessment
 - Self-directed learning
 - Receptiveness to feedback
 - Adaptability
- 18 Demonstrates the attitudes, qualities, ethical principles, commitment, and characteristics of a professional as expected by patients, other pharmacists, regulatory bodies, and other healthcare professionals
- 19 Practices within ethical, legal, and professional requirements as stipulated in federal and provincial legislation, bylaws, policies, and practice standards